

Certified

First

Autism Awareness for Law Enforcement

Course Description :

This four hour Autism Awareness for Law Enforcement course is certified by Standards and Training for Corrections (STC). Upon completion of this course, you will receive a Certificate of Completion and STC Credit.

Course Summary

This course provides an overall understanding of individuals affected by this disorder. Additionally, this course will provide participants with the description of Autism, behaviors and symptoms in individuals with Autism, de-escalation techniques, interviewing techniques, and arrest & incarceration considerations.

Performance Objectives

After taking this course, you will:

- be able to identify an understand the definition of autism.
- be able to recognize the signs of autism in an individual.
- be able to identify how to develop rapport with autistic individuals
- be able to recognize reactions autistic individuals will have towards law enforcement.

Instructors :

The instructors for this course are certified in Disability Awareness and have taught various courses in disability awareness and autism awareness to first responder agencies and private organizations. Additionally, the instructors have personal experience in dealing with autistic individuals and family members.

Law Enforcement & Corrections Only - Credentials are Required to Attend

Tuition : $75.00
Hosted by : Certified First
Location : 715 N. Mountain Ave. Suite 200, Upland, CA 91786
Registration : Register at www.register.certifiedfirst.net
Questions : Email info@certifiedfirst.net

